BOSTON LIBRARY CONSORTIUM CARD APPLICATION

(For NU Faculty, Staff & Students)

Northeastern University is a member of the Boston Library Consortium (BLC).

If your work requires extensive use of materials not available at Northeastern, you may use this form to apply for a Boston Library Consortium (BLC) card which will enable you to borrow materials from another BLC library.

NU Faculty, Staff and Students may complete the form below to apply for a Boston Library Consortium card online. Request for forms are processed Monday through Friday. Please allow 24 hours for processing. Come to the Snell or Burlington Campus Library Circulation Desk to pick up your card and sign the form.

NU Distance Ed students: please fax a signed copy of the .pdf version of this form, and a BLC card will be mailed to you.

If you already have a BLC card, remember that all cards expired on August 31, 2004. You may use this form to apply for a new card for the current academic year.

These forms are for NU affiliates only. Faculty, staff and students of other institutions should request Boston Library Consortium cards at their own libraries.
